OBJECTIVES
- ▪ To acquaint the students with the basic practice of Hawan carried out in India since ancient times.
- ▪ Recitation of the mantras of the Vedas and performance of Hawan and Yajna to invoke blessings.

CONTEXT
- ▪ It aims at invoking blessings, purifying one's mind and purifying the environment.
- ▪ Recitation of Vedic mantras in a group inculcates a respect for the ancient Vedas.

THE PRACTICE

- Hawan is a harmonious and healthy practice followed since the inception of the institute in 1958.
- Hawan is organized to make an auspicious beginning at the start of a new academic session and the closing of the session to inspire students to follow high ideals and values in life and to invoke blessing for all.
- Hawan classes are held for interested students to teach them about the essence of the sacred ritual, enunciate the mantras correctly and perform the yajna.

EVIDENCE OF SUCCESS
- Hawan has become a regular feature of the college calendar. All the students and staff members of the college participate enthusiastically in the Hawan performed twice a year in the college. The guests including the invitees and parents of the students also participate in the event.

PROBLEMS ENCOUNTERED
- With our large student body, it is becoming difficult to accommodate all our stake holders at one venue for the organization of such an event.

2. TREE PLANTATION
    OBJECTIVES
    - To create awareness among students and staff about the need of plantation.
    - To create an eco-friendly and greener environment.

    CONTEXT
    - The college selects species of trees for plantation. Saplings are given to people for nurturing them. The saplings may be replanted.

    THE PRACTICE
    - Regular plantation drives are held by eco-club and NSS units of the college.
    - 1000 Sal, amla and fruit trees were distributed among the students.
    - 5000 Poplar saplings were planted at the DAV University Grounds by the Women Studies Centre and the Eco Club of the college.
