

SUBJECT - HUMAN RIGHTS

M.A. (Final) Human Rights

Semester –III

Paper-XI: International Obligations to Protect Human Rights

1	To learn the concept of obligations and sources of international law (Art. 38 of statute of ICJ)
2	To evaluate treaties and international humanitarian law to protect individual at international level.
3	To understand international customary law, general principles of law of human rights and charter of economic rights and duties.
4	To learn about crime against humanity, war crime and war trials.
5	Understanding ILO and its role in labour welfare

Paper-XII: Civil Society, Social Movement and Human Rights in India

	To understand the concept of Civil Society and various types of Social Movements,
	To know the emergence of various types of social, religious movements and human rights in India:
	To analysis the various political and labour union movements in India
	To understand the ethnicity and ethnic movements in India
	To understand the constitution working and role of international human rights organizations.

Paper- XIII, Group-A: Women and Human Rights

1	To learn about status of women in contemporary Indian society
2	Understanding special laws for the protection of women in India.
3	To learn about international conventions and treaties especially enacted for the welfare and protection of women.

4	To understand Constitutional mechanism for the protecting rights of women in India.
5	To develop understanding of national issues relating to women including political and personal rights of women.

Paper- XIV, Group-A: Children and Human Rights

1	Understanding historical, social and philosophical perspective of child rights and various evils practiced against children.
2	To learn Constitutional status of children in India including role of legislature, executive and judiciary
3	To understand various rights given to children under various Indian legislations.
4	To analyse rights given to children under international conventions and treaties.

Paper- XV, Group-A: Human Rights and Duties of the Aged and Disabled

	To understand the conceptual perspective of Aging and Ageism
	To know the various, approaches, types and meanings of disability
	To understand the legal and institutional for the protection of the rights of the disbales
	To know the international international norms for the protection of the rights of the disables
	To know the gaps of between the laws and the actual position of the disables in India.

M.A. (Final) Human Rights,

Semester – IV

Paper- XVI: Minorities, Human Rights and Duties

1	To develop conceptual perspective of social, religious, linguistic, economic and regional minorities.
2	To learn about mechanism for minorities provided under Indian Constitution including role of legislature, executive and judiciary.

3	Understanding international legal instruments pertaining to minorities.
4	To analyse National Commission for Minorities Act, 1992, including national and state minority commission.
5	To develop understanding of national issues relating to minorities.

Paper - XVII: Environment and Human Rights and Duties

1	Understanding meaning, nature and concept of environment including concept of sustainable development and pollution
2	To know and evaluate various national and international efforts made for the protection of environment.
3	To analyse various issues of environment development in developing countries.
4	To learn about enforcement of environment rights by various commissions, NGO's and treaties.
5	To develop understanding of common heritage principle, concern for unborn animals and plants, sovereign equality and right of future generations.

Paper- XVIII Disadvantaged Groups and Human Rights

	To know the concept, history and Issues of the disadvantage groups
	To understand the socio-eco situation and the social and economic Deprivation of Lower Rungs of Society
	To analysis the status of disadvantaged people in contemporary Indian Society
	To know the constitutional protection and institutional mechanism for the protection of disadvantage groups
	To know the international norms and standards for the protection of disadvantage groups

Paper-XIX, Group-A: Working Class and Human Rights

	To Know the conceptual issues: definition, classification; Status of Working Class
	To know the problems of Women, Children, Casual Workers, Bonded Labor.
	To know the ideology of Working class movement from Laissez, welfare and Globalization;
	To understand the health hazardous, industrial accidents and the labour welfare
	To know the international and Indian standards of labour

Paper-XX, Group-A: Project Report on the Practice of Human Rights

	To know the identification of problems and preparing a research proposal
	To have a practical experience of research in human rights
	To know the problems of data collection and field research
	To make students competent to do research independently
	To contribute in research and data collection on the human rights issues